October 2017: Santa Fe Desert Chorale on Tour and Recording Session: "The Road Home"

The American Voices concert repertoire spans three centuries: from Shaker music of the 1800s to works by leading 21st century composers including Sydney Guillaume, Shawn Kirchner, Morten Lauridsen, Stephen Paulus, and including a world premiere of Reflections by Jake Runestad, set to journal writings by Henry David Thoreau. The recording, entitled "The Road Home," is the Desert Chorale's first commercial recording, and will be available in February 2018.

November 2017: Lancaster Chorale and ProMusica Chamber Orchestra Mozart's "Requiem"

ProMusica, Lancaster Chorale, and guest vocalists present Mozart's powerful and final masterpiece, his "Requiem." Soprano Kathrin Danzmayr sings Argentinian composer Osvaldo Golijov's Three Songs to complete this program of musical intimacy, intensity, and imagination.

November 2017: Fior Angelico "Spanish Songs for Lamentation and Rejoicing"

Fior Angelico presents their 2017 program with works by Francisco Guerrero, Alonso Lobo, and Tomás Luis de Victoria. Featured works on the program include Victoria's Lamentations of Jeremiah for Good Friday and Lobo's complete Missa Maria Magdalene.

November 2017: Lancaster Chorale "In Dulci Jubilo"

The Lancaster Chorale presents their annual Christmas concert.
